Holiday Greetings from your Executive Director

Dear Nebraska PGA Members, PGA Associates and Friends,

There is no better time of year than the Holidays to reflect on the past year and thank those we get the opportunity to serve.

This year in particular, our Section has been very blessed with a considerable amount of recognition at the National and local levels. Nationally, James Sieckmann, PGA and Nick Muller, PGA were recognized with the highest awards that our PGA Professionals can receive in Teaching & Coaching and Merchandising categories. In addition, we witnessed on the Golf Channel, Ryan Vermeer, PGA capturing the 51st PGA Professional Championship. Gentlemen, congrats on a tremendous season!

At the local level, I could not be more proud of our Section because of the tremendous day-in-day-out dedication by each one of you. This year, I received numerous messages, calls and emails from those you serve in your communities for the impact you are making in the lives of your fellow community members.

Through your foundation, PGA REACH Nebraska, we continue to build momentum in growing the game and bringing golf to a diverse population. From Golf N Schools to PGA HOPE we look forward to strengthening these programs in the year ahead.

I want to wish you all a Holiday season filled with many wonderful memories of time spent with those you love. The Nebraska Section PGA team and I look forward to the new year and building upon the momentum of 2018 and for a prosperous 2019!

On a personal note.....my wife Erin and I look forward to welcoming our third child in May 2019, which will surely bring some entertainment into our lives.

God Bless,
David Honnens, PGA

Ryan Vermeer, PGA captures 2018 OMEGA PGA Professional of the Year Award

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (Dec. 19, 2018) – PGA Professional Champion Ryan Vermeer of Omaha, Nebraska, and Senior PGA Professional Champion Bob Sowards of Dublin, Ohio, have won the respective 2018 OMEGA PGA Professional and Senior PGA Professional Player of the Year awards.

They will be honored on Friday, April 26, in conjunction with the 52nd PGA Professional Championship presented by Club Car and OMEGA at Belfair in Bluffton, South Carolina.

Vermeer, 40, the PGA Director of Instruction at Happy Hollow Club in Omaha, Nebraska, won his first national award during a season when he captured the PGA Professional Championship in June at Bayonet Black Horse in Seaside, California. Vermeer is the first Nebraska PGA Member to earn both national titles.

Vermeer's banner season included winning a second Nebraska PGA Player of the Year award in three years. He finished with 1,000 total points, while Michael Block of Aliso Viejo, California, was runner-up with 850. Sowards, who made a strong run in both award categories, shared third with Johan Kok of Nashville, Tennessee, with 830 points.

Capturing the PGA Professional Championship gave Vermeer the spark to the award, and he added 300 points for Nebraska PGA Player of the Year; 100 each for winning the Section PGA Professional Championship and the Section Championship.

"Winning this award was in the back of my mind," said Vermeer. "It was attainable and within reach. To have it come to reality is awesome.

"The PPC was the biggest win of my life. It has opened a lot of pretty cool doors. Those opportunities allowed me to be playing against the best players in the world, which is an awesome experience."

The son of PGA Life Member Bob Vermeer of Waterloo, Nebraska, Vermeer was elected to PGA membership in 2016, and spent nearly 11 years attempting to build a tour career.

Merchandiser of the Year—Public Matt Shaner, PGA

Today the internet dominates everything from getting your news instantly, to shopping. Sometimes though it is very scary to shop online. You never know what you are going to get, especially in golf equipment.

Since I started at Golf USA-Kearney in October of 2016, I have been able to re-establish my passion of for player development, Golf-n-Schools, Club fitting, and seeing people improve their game.

One thing that has made Golf USA stand out for 25 plus years in Central Nebraska is our attention to customer service. When that customer walks through our doors, we want to know that person, even if they are just in our store for 5 mins. We take the time to talk with each customer to find out what they are looking for, not being pushy or forceful in our approach, and offer our expertise when it comes to club fitting. By doing these simple things our customers gain a trust in our staff. The internet can't compete with good customer service.

Club fitting has taken our business to another level that the internet can't duplicate as well. Our margins have increased over the last 2 years, all due to our focus on developing customer relations. We offer the club fitting as a free service to those buying from the store and do follow ups on how their new equipment is improving their game. This results in lesson revenue and club repair revenue in the long run.

Having fun with your customer, making them smile, and showing a genuine interest are great ways to connect. Following up on their equipment when they come into the store or when you see them in the community is key to building relationships and create repeat customers!

District 8 Director Update

David Schneider, PGA
District 8 Director

Over two weeks ago, Renee reminded me that my newsletter article was due for the section. Being a “Captain of Procrastination”, I placed it on the bottom of my daily To Do list. Then at 5:30 AM a few days ago, she texts, “here is friendly second reminder.” She is so good. Then the pressure was on to produce.

It seems standard to wish all the PGA members and Associates in the Nebraska Section a very Happy Holiday and Best Wishes for a great 2019....and of course, I do. However, what if I also provided everyone a tip or suggestion that will really “Grow the Game and Serve the Member”. To me that seems like as good of an idea.

So here it is. This time of year, everyone does a Secret Santa Exchange of some type. If you are also a “Captain of Procrastination” and have not gone shopping yet, don’t fret. I have your back. When you are all gathered around to exchange, and your turn comes to give your gift to someone, here is what I suggest. Stand up on sturdiest table in the room in front of everyone and in a loud voice state, “Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to all my loved ones. My gift to everyone this year, not just Mitzi who I had in the draw, is a complimentary lesson and 9 holes of golf with your favorite PGA Professional in the entire world.....ME!!” Then let the room roar, laugh, giggle, etc. What is the result????? You placed golf on their minds and get to spend quality one on one time with loved ones being around golf. (Additional tip: Try and announce this when that inebriated uncle is out of the room).

Special wishes to all of you and thank you for growing the game in your world.

Sincerely,

Dave, Deb, Nic, Nathan and Colin Schneider

Rule Tip of the Week December Rules Quiz

As Dr. Seuss once wrote, “How did it get so late so soon? It’s night before it’s afternoon. December is here before it’s June. My goodness how the time has flown. How did it get so late so soon?” We are now less than one month away from officially implementing the new Rules of Golf that come into effect on January 1, 2019. If you have been diligently studying the new Rules, then this True-False quiz should be a “piece of cake” for you; if not, then it’s probably time for you to start burning the midnight oil and finding out what’s in the new Rules book!

1. A ball is always treated as lying in only one area of the course. If part of the ball is in two specific areas of the course, it is treated as lying in the specific area that comes first in this order: putting green, bunker, penalty area.
2. If a conforming club is damaged during a round, the damaged club is treated as conforming for the rest of the round regardless of the nature or cause of the damage, and the player may continue to make strokes with the damaged club for the rest of the round.
3. If you change the performance characteristics of a club, e.g., the loft, using an adjustable feature during a round, you will not be penalized so long as you adjust the feature back as nearly as possible to its original position prior to making a stroke with the club.
4. In stroke play, if you play a wrong ball during the final hole of the round, in order to avoid the penalty of disqualification, you must indicate before leaving the putting green of the final hole that you will be correcting your mistake.
5. Any time your ball in play is within the teeing area, you are permitted to move the ball to another spot within the teeing area, including playing it from a tee, without penalty.
6. If you move a boundary stake out of the way because it interferes with your intended backswing, you cannot avoid the penalty for improving the area of your intended swing by replacing the stake before playing your next stroke.
7. After having marked, lifted and replaced your ball on the putting green, if a gust of wind then moves your ball, you must play the ball from its new position.
8. If your ball in motion ricochets off a nearby tree and accidentally strikes your golf cart, there is no penalty.

Answers:

1. False See new Rule 2.2c [Determining Area of Course Where Ball Lies] which indicates that, if the ball is in two specific areas of the course, it is treated as lying in the specific area that comes first in this order: penalty area, bunker, putting green.
2. True See new Rule 4.1a(2) [Use or Repair of Club Damaged During Round].
3. True See the Exception [Adjustable Club Restored to Original Position] to Rule 4.1a(3) [Deliberately Changing Club's Performance Characteristics During Round].
4. False Per new Rule 6.3c [Wrong Ball], if you play a wrong ball during the final hole of your round in stroke play, the deadline for correcting your mistake to avoid being disqualified is when you return your scorecard.
5. True New Rule 6.2b(6) [When Ball in Play Lies in Teeing Area] states, "If the player's ball in play is in the teeing area after a stroke (such as a teed ball after a stroke that missed the ball) or after taking relief, the player may ... (l)ift or move the ball without penalty ... and (p)lay that ball or another ball from anywhere in the teeing area from a tee or the ground ... including playing the ball as it lies."
6. False New Rule 8.1c(1) [How to Restore Conditions Improved by Moving, Bending or Breaking Object] advises, in part, "Before making the stroke, the player may avoid penalty for breach of Rule 8.1a(1) by restoring the original object as nearly as possible to its original position so that the improvement created by the breach is eliminated, such as by ... (r)eplacing a boundary object (such as a boundary stake) that had been removed ...."
7. False See the Exception [Ball on Putting Green Must Be Replaced If It Moves After Having Already Been Lifted and Replaced] to new Rule 9.3 [Ball Moved by Natural Forces].
8. True See new Rule 11.1 [Ball in Motion Accidentally Hits Person or Outside Influence].
